About Diane Gibson

President and Founder of DMG Consultancy Ltd., Diane brings an energizing, focused and engaging atmosphere to her speaking engagements, workshops and client assignments. Her enthusiasm and deep experience is the result of years of working hand-in-hand with clients to design and implement organizational architectures that continually produce excellent performance.

Like a well-designed blueprint for a solid structure, a well-designed organizational architecture creates the foundation for long-term, sustainable business success, increased corporate valuation and employee loyalty, engagement and effectiveness. Her infrastructure expertise helps clients put in place the four pillars of organizational success; Culture, Strategy, Structure and Leadership.

Diane brings insight and energy to her client engagements and is quick to establish trust with clients and employees. She is an active member of the Institute of Management Consultants (IMC), American Society of Quality (ASQ) and the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO). She serves as an adjunct faculty member to Spokane Falls Community College. Diane has an undergraduate degree in Business from the University of Phoenix and an MBA from the University of Denver, Daniels College of Business.
